

Program – 4

09.00 – 10.00 am            Al Fateh Islamic center – Grand Mosque

Bahrain's Grande Mosque is set against a back drop of palm trees and the sea. Its exquisite architecture, crowned by the worlds most largest fibre glass dome. Non muslims are welcome to visit the mosque, it is important to dress appropriately.

10.15 – 11.00 am            National Museum – Bahrain

You will not be able to comprehend much about the country unless and until you take a walk down the glorious past of this land. From the first inhabitants of this island to the foreign influences, you will know much about Bahrain like never before. The kingdom's rich heritage and past steps to the fore with the presence of Bahrain Museums. And the one that comes to mind is that of Bahrain National Museum.

11.15 - 12.00 am            Manama Souq

The souk lies in the centre of the old town, near the archway of Bab al-Bahrain and, although much of the surrounding area is modern, the street layout and division of occupations still follow traditional lines: the gold souk, for example, is to be found to the southeast of the market area and is particularly impressive during the hours of darkness.

12.15 - 01.30 pm            Dolphin watching

Opened in December 1998, The Dolphin Park seats a maximum of 620 people, There are currently two Beluga Whales and two Sea Lions. The marine mammal show lasts about an hour. You can also swim with the Dolphins.